

Page: 1

Ref: A00030100410
ABC Central Australia (Alice Springs)
12:30 News
Station Ph: 08 8950 4711
Item Start: 26/03/2008 - 12:34 PM
Duration: 0:42
Compere: Newsreader

An Alice Springs Alderman says she thinks a new ban on smoking at sporting venues could stop people hiring them. The Council voted last night to ban smoking indoors at all its leased sporting premises, such as Traeger Park. Technical Services Director, Greg Buxton, says the move brings the Council into line with national health guidelines. Alderman Robyn Lamby, who voted against the policy, says it might put people off using the facilities.

© Media Monitors 2008

Interviewees: Robyn Lamby (*), Alderman

Demographics:

Demographics are not available as the media outlet has not commissioned audience research into this timeslot.

